

How far are you from your first job?

Students often have a resume, but don't know how ready they are for a specific role — or what they should do next.

WHERE YOU WANT TO BE

Target Job

01

Unclear Readiness

Students don't know how closely their current profile matches their target role.

02

No Personalized Plan

Generic advice doesn't tell students what to work on week by week.

03

Hard to Act

Even after identifying a goal, students still need relevant openings and a message to send.

CareerGPS Agent turns a resume into a personalized route to the first job.
